

ORBIT GARANT DRILLING INC.

(“Orbit Garant” or the “Corporation”)

CHARTER OF THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

(the “Committee”)

1. Objectives

The Committee is responsible for: (a) developing the Corporation’s approach to board of directors’ governance issues and the Corporation’s response to the corporate governance guidelines; (c) assessing the effectiveness of the Corporation’s board of directors (the “Board of Directors” or the “Board”), each of the Board’s committee and individual directors (d) reviewing the composition and contribution of the Board of Directors and its members and recommending Board of Directors nominees; (e) overseeing the orientation program for new directors; and (f) helping to maintain an effective working relationship between the Board of Directors of the Corporation and management.

The Committee is also responsible for reviewing the remuneration and the terms of employment of the senior executives and the Board of Directors as well as reviewing all other matters with respect to compensation as may be required by the Board of Directors from time to time.

2. Interpretation, Composition and Meeting Particulars

- Key definitions shall be found in Schedule 1.
- Details on composition of the Committee shall be found in Schedule 2.
- Details on rules and procedures governing meetings shall be found in Schedule 3.

3. Reports

The Committee shall:

(a) report to the Board on a regular basis and before any public disclosure by the Corporation on compensation and governance matters;

(b) prepare and approve any reports on executive compensation, prior to their public disclosure, as required by applicable legislation and regulation and/or pursuant to the Corporation’s undertaking to provide necessary information to comply with its disclosure obligations, and in particular, where the Corporation has paid short-term incentives, the Committee shall consider disclosure of (a) the extent to which an individual’s performance has been achieved against relevant targets, and (b) if performance is poor, an explanation for paying the short-term incentive.

(c) prepare a report on the Corporation’s system of corporate governance practices for inclusion in the annual report or other public disclosure documents of the Corporation, including a report disclosing the extent (if any) to which the Corporation does not comply with applicable corporate governance guidelines or other relevant corporate governance guidelines; and

(d) report to the Board annually, with an assessment of the Board's performance and the Chairman shall also discuss the report with all the members of the Board.

4. Responsibilities and Duties / Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee

4.1 General Responsibilities

Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee members:

- 4.1.1 Review criteria regarding the composition of the Board of Directors and committees of the Board of Directors such as size, proportion of unrelated Directors and as to criteria to determine "relatedness" as well as profile of the Board of Directors (age, geographical representation, disciplines, etc.) and establish a recommended slate of Directors for the Board of Directors comprised of members who facilitate effective decision-making.
- 4.1.2 Consider the level of female representation and diversity on the Board of Directors through continuously monitoring the level of female representation on the Board of Directors and, where appropriate, recruiting qualified female candidates as part of the Corporation's overall recruitment and selection process to find new Directors, as the need arises, through vacancies, growth or otherwise.
- 4.1.3 Review criteria for retention of Directors unrelated to age or tenure, such as attendance at Board of Directors and committee meetings, health, or the assumption of responsibilities which are incompatible with effective Board of Directors membership; and assess the effectiveness of the Board of Directors as a whole, the committees of the Board of Directors, the contribution of individual Directors on an ongoing basis and establish, in light of the opportunities and risks facing the Corporation, what competencies, skills and personal qualities it seeks in new Board of Directors members in order to add value to the Corporation.
- 4.1.4 Recommend to the Board of Directors the list of candidates for Directors to be nominated for election by shareholders at annual general meetings of shareholders.
- 4.1.5 Recommend to the Board of Directors, candidates to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors occurring between annual general meetings of shareholders.
- 4.1.6 Recommend to the Board of Directors the removal of a Director in exceptional circumstances, for example (a) such Director is in a position of conflict of interest or (b) the criteria underlying the appointment of such Director change.

Director Orientation

- 4.1.7 As an integral element of the process for appointing new Directors, ensure a follow-up with respect to the orientation and education program for new recruits to the Board of Directors.

Corporate Governance Principles

- 4.1.8 The Committee is responsible for developing the Corporation's approach to governance, including developing a set of corporate governance principles and guidelines that are specifically applicable to the Corporation (Section 3.4 (1) (g) of NP 58-201). The Committee does not merely make recommendations; it develops an approach to governance and a set of corporate governance principles and guidelines, review such principles and guidelines regularly (but not less than annually) and recommends to the Board of Directors any changes which it considers appropriate.

- 4.1.9 The Committee shall review annually the composition of the Board of Directors to ensure, to the greatest extent possible, that a majority of the Board is comprised of individuals who meet the independence requirements of the applicable regulatory, stock exchange and securities law requirements or other guidelines.
- 4.1.10 Advise the Board of Directors on the disclosure to be contained in the Corporation's public disclosure documents, such as the Corporation's Annual Management Proxy Circular or Annual Report, on matters of corporate governance as required by the applicable exchange or securities regulators.
- 4.1.11 Generally advises the Board of Directors on all other matters of corporate governance.
- 4.1.12 Review proposed amendments to the Corporation's by-laws before making recommendations to the Board of Directors.
- 4.1.13 Periodically review the Corporation's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, monitor compliance with such code and resolve any breach thereto.

External and Internal Resources

- 4.1.14 Retain such independent external advisors as it may deem necessary and advisable for its purposes.
- 4.1.15 Report, if required, to the Board of Directors on its proceedings, reviews undertaken, and any associated recommendations.
- 4.1.16 Have adequate resources to discharge its responsibilities.
- 4.1.17 Have the right, for the purposes of discharging the powers and responsibilities of the Committee, to inspect any relevant records of the Corporation and its subsidiaries.
- 4.1.18 Review any request by the Board of Directors of the Corporation or individual Directors to retain external advisors at the expense of the Corporation in certain appropriate circumstances in carrying out their responsibilities.

Shareholder Proposals

- 4.1.19 Review and make recommendations on shareholder proposals to the Board of Directors or refer them to the Chief Executive Officer, as appropriate.

5. Responsibilities and Duties / Human Resources

- 5.1 The Committee shall, among other things, have responsibility to advise the Board of Directors on human resources planning (including succession planning), compensation of members of the Board of Directors, Executive Officers and other employees, short and long-term incentive plans, benefit plans, and Executive Officers appointments.

- 5.2 The Committee shall, at least annually, review and approve the position descriptions of the Chief Executive Officer and President and the corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and President and evaluate the Chief Executive Officer's and President's performance in light of those goals and objectives.
- 5.3 The Committee shall review and approve the proposed Executive Compensation Report to be contained in the Corporation's Annual Proxy Circular.
- 5.4 The Committee shall review and make recommendations with respect to any special employment contracts or arrangements with officers of the Corporation including any contracts relating to a change of control.
- 5.5 The Committee shall review and make recommendation with respect to remuneration for members of the Board of Directors and committees thereof, including adequacy and form of compensation, realistically reflecting the responsibilities and risks of the positions and recommend changes where applicable.

6. General Provisions

6.1 Other responsibilities

- 6.1.1 The Committee shall carry out such other mandates as the Board of Directors may request from time to time.

6.2 Review of mandate of the Committee

- 6.2.1 At least annually, the Committee shall perform a review and evaluation of the performance of the Committee and its members, including the compliance of the Committee with this Charter.

6.3 Compensation

- 6.3.1 Members of the Committee shall be entitled to receive such remuneration for acting as members of the Committee as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time.

Approved by the Board of Directors on May 10, 2017
