International Revenue ($ millions)

Low Global Gold Discovery Rates

Global Gold Discoveries vs. Exploration Spending, 1990-2023

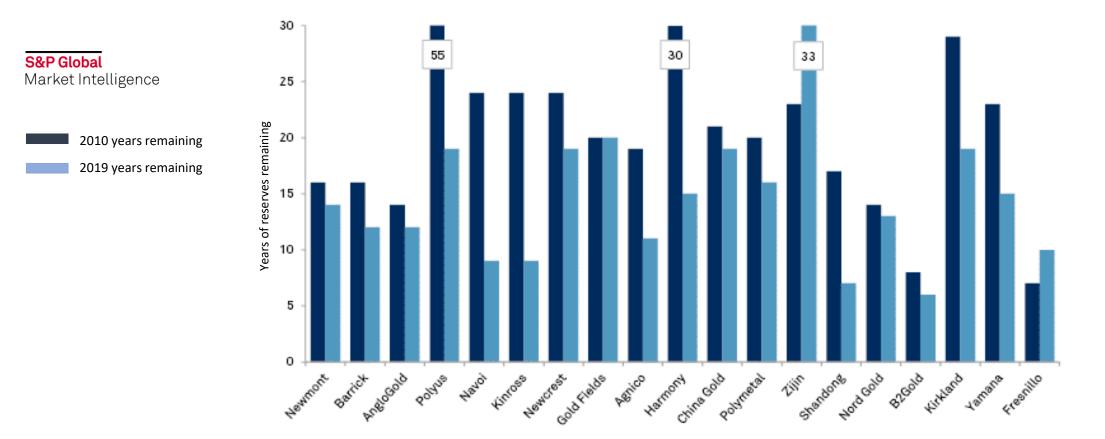

- Gold discovery rates are relatively low despite very high levels of exploration spending
- Major gold discoveries remain very rare

Declining Reserves in Global Gold Sector

Major Gold Producers' Years of Reserves Remaining, 2010 vs. 2019

• The mineable reserves of most senior gold producers have dropped sharply, driving the need for significant spending on exploration and mine development

Global Exploration Budgets

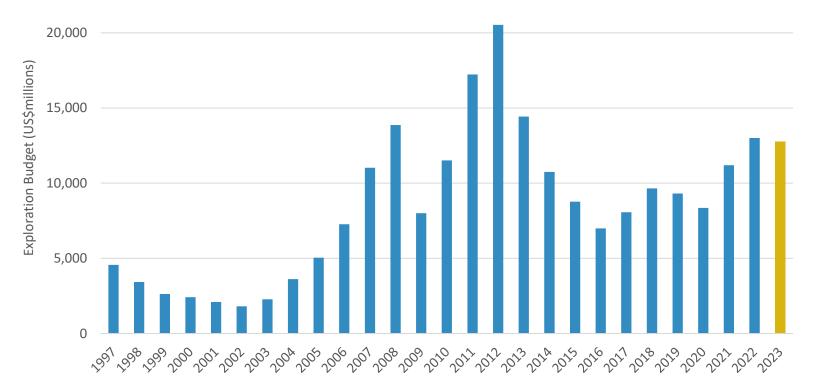

Annual nonferrous exploration budgets, 1997-2023

S&P Global

Market Intelligence

- 2023 aggregate global nonferrous exploration budgets were an estimated US$12.8 billion
 - ~3% decline from 2022 levels
- Second highest annual level since 2013 despite slight year-over-year slowdown
- Monetary tightening and geopolitical tensions impacted financing activity in the mining sector, particularly for juniors
- Continued growth in exploration spending for the "green metals" (copper, nickel and lithium)
- 2024 budgets expected to decline ~5% from 2023 levels

Exploration budgets have rebounded from lows in 2016 and the impact of COVID-19 in 2020

Gold Price (USD$) (September 23, 2024)

- Spot gold price reached record high above US$2,600 per ounce in September 2024
- Current price of gold (~US$2,630) is ~80% above its trailing 5-year low in November 2019
- Strong price of gold supports access to capital for mining companies, and high levels of mineral exploration and development spending
- Gold-related operations accounted for 66% of Orbit Garant's revenue in Fiscal 2024

Strong incentive for gold miners to boost exploration and development budgets

Copper Price (USD$) (September 23, 2024)

- Copper price reached record level above US$5.00 per pound in May 2024
- Strong long-term demand outlook
 - Copper has an important role in the electrification of the global economy needed to achieve "net-zero" emissions targets
- Copper supply expected to lag demand over the long term
- Orbit Garant's Chilean operations provide exposure to copper

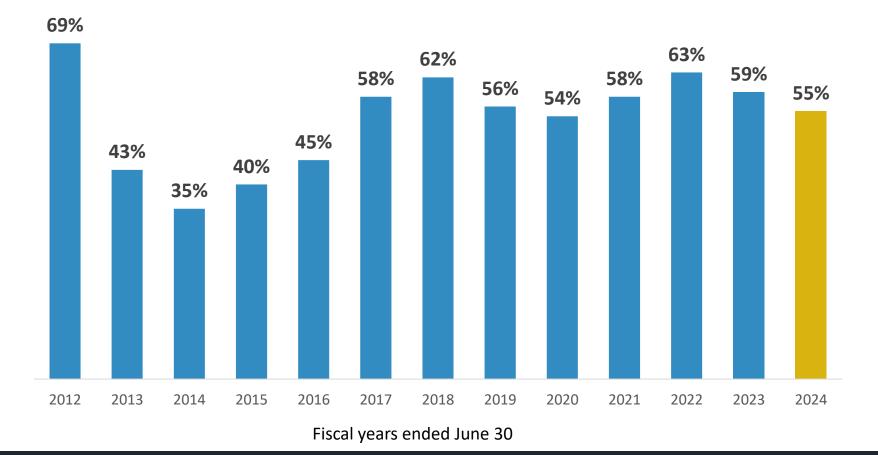

Strength in copper price supports profitability for miners and increased exploration / development spending

Utilization Rates

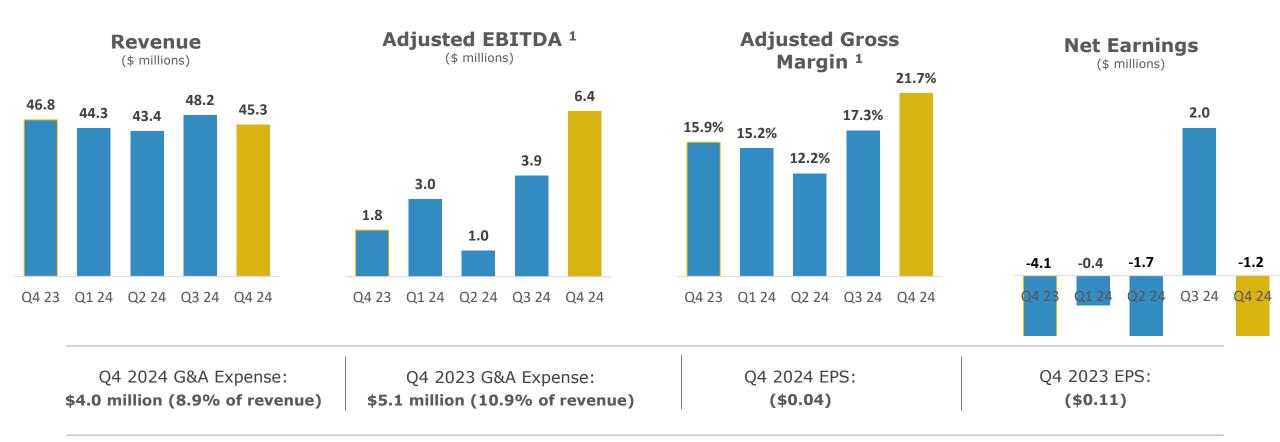

(Average Annual Utilization Rate %)

Target utilization rate of ~75%

Q4 2024 Financial Review

Reconciliation of Non-IFRS Financial Measures

- "EBITDA" and "Adjusted EBITDA": EBITDA is defined as net earnings (loss) before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization. Adjusted EBITDA is defined as EBITDA excluding the impact of (i) the write-down of inventories from restructuring in Burkina Faso and (ii) the effect of the substantial modification of a receivable and expected credit loss. Management believes that EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA are important measures when analyzing its operating profitability, as they remove the impact of financing costs, certain non-cash items, income taxes and restructuring costs. As a result, Management considers these measures as useful and comparable benchmarks for evaluating the Company's performance, as companies rarely have the same capital and financing structure.
- "Adjusted gross profit": Adjusted gross profit is defined as gross profit excluding depreciation and write-down of inventories from restructuring in Burkina Faso. Although adjusted gross profit is not a recognized financial measure defined by IFRS, Management considers it to be an important measure as it represents the Company's core profitability, without the impact of depreciation expenses and write-down of inventories from restructuring in Burkina Faso. As a result, Management believes it provides a useful and comparable benchmark for evaluating the Company's performance.
