Non-IFRS Measures

This presentation makes reference to certain non-IFRS measures, including EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA Margin, Adjusted Gross Profit and Adjusted Gross Margin, that do not have standardized meanings prescribed by IFRS and could be calculated differently by other companies. The Company believes that these measures, when presented in conjunction with comparable IFRS financial measures, are useful to investors and other readers because the information is an appropriate measure to evaluate the Company’s operating performance. Internally, the Company uses this non-IFRS financial information as an indicator of business performance. These measures are provided for information purposes, in addition to, and not as a substitute for, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with IFRS. EBITDA is defined as net earnings (loss) before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization. Adjusted EBITDA is defined as EBITDA excluding the impact of (i) the effect of the substantial modification of a receivable and expected credit loss, and (ii) the interest revenue from the collection of the long-term receivable. Adjusted EBITDA margin is defined as the percentage of adjusted EBITDA to contract revenue. Adjusted gross profit is defined as gross profit excluding depreciation. Adjusted gross margin is defined as the percentage of adjusted gross profit to contract revenue. Please refer to reconciliation in the Appendix.

Low Global Gold Discovery Rates

Global Gold Discoveries vs. Exploration Spending, 1990-2023

- Gold discovery rates are relatively low despite very high levels of exploration spending
- Major gold discoveries remain very rare

Declining Reserves in Global Gold Sector

Major Gold Producers' Years of Reserves Remaining, 2010 vs. 2019

- The mineable reserves of most senior gold producers have dropped sharply, driving the need for significant spending on exploration and mine development

Global Exploration Budgets

Annual nonferrous exploration budgets, 1997-2023

S&P Global

Market Intelligence

- 2023 aggregate global nonferrous exploration budgets were an estimated US$12.8 billion
 - ◆ ~3% decline from 2022 levels
- Second highest annual level since 2013 despite slight year-over-year slowdown
- Monetary tightening and geopolitical tensions impacted financing activity in the mining sector, particularly for juniors
- Continued growth in exploration spending for the “green metals” (copper, nickel and lithium)
- 2024 budgets expected to decline ~5% from 2023 levels

Exploration budgets have rebounded from lows in 2016 and the impact of COVID-19 in 2020

Gold Price (USD$) (November 18, 2024)

- Spot gold price reached record high of nearly US$2,800 per ounce in October 2024
- Current price of gold (~US$2,610) is ~80% above its trailing 5-year low in November 2019
- Strong price of gold supports access to capital for mining companies, and high levels of mineral exploration and development spending
- Gold-related operations accounted for 66% of Orbit Garant's revenue in Q1 2025

Strong incentive for gold miners to boost exploration and development budgets

Copper Price (USD$) (November 18, 2024)

- Copper price reached record level above US$5.00 per pound in May 2024
- Strong long-term demand outlook: copper has an important role in the electrification of the global economy needed to achieve “net-zero” emissions targets
- Copper supply expected to lag demand over the long term
- Orbit Garant’s Chilean operations provide exposure to copper

Strength in copper price supports profitability for miners and increased exploration / development spending

Utilization Rates

(Average Annual Utilization Rate %)

Target utilization rate of ~75%

- Adjusted Gross Margin is a non-IFRS measure and is defined as the percentage of adjusted gross profit to contract revenue. Adjusted EBITDA is a non-IFRS measure and is defined as net earnings (loss) before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization excluding the impact of (i) the effect of the substantial modification of a receivable and expected credit loss, and (ii) the interest revenue from the collection of the long-term receivable.
- Net loss in Q4 2024 reflects one-time charges related to sale of inventories in West Africa

Strongest quarterly net earnings in four years reflecting improved operating earnings in both Canadian and international drilling operations

Fiscal 2024 Financial Review

($ millions, except margin % and per share amounts)	Fiscal year ended June 30, 2024	Fiscal year ended June 30, 2023
Revenue	181.2	201.0
Gross Profit	20.4	18.3
Adjusted EBITDA ¹	14.4	19.1
Adjusted Gross Margin ¹	16.7%	16.2%
Net earnings (loss)	(1.3)	(0.7)
Net earnings (loss) per share	($0.04)	($0.02)

- Decline in revenue was primarily attributable to customer decisions to suspend or reduce drilling activity on certain projects in Canada during the first half of Fiscal 2024.
- These suspended or reduced projects were all re-started by January 2024
- Excluding one-time charges totaling $5.2 million related to sale of inventories in West Africa, Orbit Garant's net income for Fiscal 2024 would have been $3.9 million, or 10 cents per share.

1) Adjusted EBITDA is defined as net earnings (loss) before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, excluding the impact of (i) the write-down of inventories from restructuring in Burkina Faso, and (ii) the effect of the substantial modification of a receivable and expected credit loss. Adjusted Gross Margin is defined as the percentage of adjusted gross profit to contract revenue. See "Reconciliation of Non-IFRS measures" in the Appendix of this presentation.

Fiscal 2024 margins reflect increased drilling activity in Chile and the cessation of activity in West Africa, partially offset by the impact of a temporary reduction of drilling activity in Canada during H1 2024

Reconciliation of Non-IFRS Financial Measures

- “EBITDA” and “Adjusted EBITDA”: EBITDA is defined as net earnings (loss) before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization. Adjusted EBITDA is defined as EBITDA excluding the impact of (i) the effect of the substantial modification of a receivable and expected credit loss, and (ii) the interest revenue from the collection of the long-term receivable. Management believes that EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA are important measures when analyzing its operating profitability, as they remove the impact of financing costs, certain non-cash items, income taxes and restructuring costs. As a result, Management considers these measures as useful and comparable benchmarks for evaluating the Company’s performance, as companies rarely have the same capital and financing structure.
